Feast Your Eyes!

$498,000

Capt. Samuel Herman could have had no idea what the term 'Eye Candy' meant, but more than a century later, his home at 56 Broad St serves as a fine example. Beautiful to look at, yes, but the Herman house isn't just about style, there's substance here too. Since 2007, extensive renovations have made the house not only a visual delight, but energy efficient & comfortable as well. From the restoration of stained glass to the careful refurbishment of original sash windows, the renovations have been sensitive to the architectural authenticity of the house. Add a new roof, complete rewiring, new lighting, insulation, new bathrooms, a stunning designer kitchen, and you have a home that offers all the comforts of modern living. Great flow through elegant principal rooms w/ hardwood floors, high ceilings & large bay windows. A beautiful & bright Kitchen adjoins a Dining Room/Sunroom where large windows & French doors create fluidity between indoors & out. Great development potential in the walk-up attic. Outside find a private oasis of professionally designed gardens, stone patios & walkways, paved parking and the original Carriage House/garage. A fantastic family home or sophisticated couple's residence with plenty of space for entertaining or family gatherings. Centrally located on a quiet, 14,000 sq ft corner lot, a scenic 5 minute stroll to the waterfront shops & services, Community Centre, school & rec facilities. So, how sweet does that sound?...Now, scroll through the photos and 'Feast Your Eyes'..., this one is 'Delicious'!
