"Rose Cottage" Lunenburg

$495,000

In a town renowned for its architecture, Rose Cottage stands out as masterpiece of Victorian elegance & style. Since 1867 this striking residence has been one of the most beloved and photographed historic homes in Lunenburg. A delightful interior from the etched glass entry doors to the octagonal turret. High ceilings, stunning woodwork, hardwood floors, large bays & built-ins. Living room with working fireplace, Den with custom cabinetry, formal Dining room with original china cabinet, & main floor guest room with ensuite. The well-equipped custom kitchen with commercial-grade propane range will put the family chef in heaven! Upstairs, hardwood floors continue through 4 large bedrooms. The focal point of the 2nd floor is the front bay, or "Lunenburg Bump", which overlooks the front lawns & gardens. A pair of full baths with clawfoot tubs & separate showers complete the 2nd floor. The cherry on top is what some call the finest example of a Victorian widow's walk in Lunenburg. This magical space affords views in all directions through 10 small arched windows and is a cozy little space to escape to with a good book on a sunny day. Set back & elevated on 17,630 sq-ft (.4 acre) double corner lot surrounded by gardens & stone pathways. Sunny side deck & shady front verandah. Parking for 4 cars plus single garage. Thoroughly restored inside and out from 2000-2002, with all new systems including windows, electrical & plumbing, heating, refurbished cast iron rads w/ individual controls, even central vac!
