

368 Mader's Cove Rd, Maders Cove

An Architectural "Classic"

$1,200,000

In the world of architecture the term "Classic" is the ultimate accolade. Classic designs can be ancient or modern... even post modern. But irrespective of the era in which these architectural masterpieces make their appearance, Classics are never "dated". THE HILL at Maders Cove is a Classic! It was a classic when conceived & built in 1958; it will still be admired as a classic 100 years from now. Notwithstanding the old saying about "glass houses", this is a GLASS HOUSE you definitely want to live in! Aside from the panavision perspective over Mahone Bay, the 70+ feet of wrap-around glass surrounding the living & dining areas both lights and (seasonally) colors the space. 'Joie de vivre' is a permanent fixture in this home. A few particulars: teak floors, radiant heat, walnut paneled den, 3 big ensuite bedrooms, see-through fireplace, a kitchen right out of the Museum of Modern Art, in-ground heated pool, palatial lawns. Truly, words fail... just feast your eyes on the pictures!
