

133 Edgewater St, Mahone Bay

A Perfect Union!

$545,000

In 1833, 4 denominations came together in the building of the 'Union & Harmony Meeting House' on Edgewater Street. "Union House" would serve as Mahone Bay's 1st "church", long before the community became known for its iconic "3 Churches". Built nearly 2 centuries ago to be a place where different perspectives could come together in harmony, this notable landmark continues to be a house of contrasts, a 'Union' if you will, of historic & contemporary. The immaculate exterior retains its classic colonial lines, but upon entering, one discovers a decidedly contemporary open design featuring a stunning bluestone slate wall standing as the dramatic centerpiece of a flowing Main Living Area. Other unique features include a glass greenhouse, an authentic 19th century sitting room w/ original plank floors, wainscoting & built-in cupboard, and an open gallery from the 2nd floor landing illuminating upper & lower levels w/ natural light. 3 bedrooms include a large Master Suite w/ harbour views. Outside, park-like landscaping integrates colorful gardens, manicured lawns & hardscaping, and even a tranquil pond. Situated on a little rise of land, the home enjoys views of picturesque Mahone Bay Harbour. Arguably the most coveted location in town, the very private dead-end offshoot of Edgewater is a fascinating streetscape of just 3 distinctive & beautifully maintained historic homes. This peaceful enclave seems a world away from the bustling town center, but a scenic 5 minute stroll takes you to the very heart of the downtown core.

Directions

TOWN OF MAHONE BAY: Located on the "old-road" offshoot of Edgewater Street (a quiet dead-end street of just 3 homes). Entering Mahone Bay from exit 10, take a "very sharp" right turn just as you come to the first of the famous "3 Churches" as you come into town (Trinity United Church). Civic #133 is the second home on your left. Look for the Red Door Realty sign!
