Come Ashore Treasure Hunters!

$649,000

Ahoy Treasure Hunters...Forget Oak Island, we've uncovered a gem on Corkum's Island! Situated at the water's edge on sheltered Upper South Cove, minutes outside of popular Lunenburg, discover this custom built 2750 sq ft home. At the heart of the home is a Great Room that will take your breath away with its cathedral ceiling and mesmerizing views. This impressive main living area combines kitchen with open plan living and dining under timber-frame detailing. A southwest facing wall of windows brings the outdoors in with panoramic views, infusing the living space with brilliant natural light. The living space flows seamlessly to the outdoors where an expansive deck links the main house with an enclosed gazebo with its own woodstove. Enjoy summer afternoons swimming off the floating dock and autumn evenings in front of the fire-pit on the shorefront patio. Fitting its modern design the home offers main level living with 2 main floor bedrooms including Master with walk-in closet, ensuite, and walkout to deck. There's additional space on the 2nd level with a spacious Family Room, a generous guest bedroom and full bath. Built in 2012 with energy efficiency & comfort in mind, this home is the ideal year-round family home or seasonal seaside oasis. Enjoy in-floor radiant heat and heatpump heat & air-conditioning. Complementing this treasure trove of features is a 1.5 acre lot, attached garage & utility shed, a large screen room and boat slipway. If that's not enough, this bountiful home also comes with a location that can't be beat. Neatly tucked away on nearby Corkums Island this seaside setting offers the best of both worlds...privacy & yard space of the country but so close you could bike into town. What a Treasure indeed!
