"TRAIL MIX" -- Looking to mix it up a bit?...Check out Sandy Hollow Road at the head of the trail. Here we have the perfect combination of in-town convenience and relaxed country living.

This solid craftsman-inspired family home has great bones and original features including hardwood floors throughout most of the house, pristine woodwork and double French door passageways for great flow between principal rooms. The much loved home has been in the same family since it was purchased from the builder in 1940 and the homeowner spent all winter removing layers of wallpaper and restoring the walls beneath in many of the rooms leaving a crisp neutral pallet. Enjoy an appealing mix of 'old house character' with modern touches like main level laundry and full bath, electrical upgrades, and insulation.

Outside, there's a nice big yard and a large outbuilding/garage at the end of the driveway. At the front of the house, the deep covered verandah looks out over a little park at the entrance to Lunenburg. The Sandy Hollow location is also quite special offering the best of both worlds...in-town with access to services and amenities but ideally situated at the head of Rum Runners Trail connecting you to miles of well-maintained walking and biking trails. And at this price, it's great value for Lunenburg. All-in-all, a very healthy combination!
