One-Level-Living without Compromise

$715,000

'One-Level-Living' doesn't always mean downsizing or sacrificing the space you want. Take this fabulous property as a prime example. One of the iconic homes of Lunenburg's popular "New Town" district, the stately 2400 s-f foot home has for years been admired by residents & visitors alike. Meticulously maintained inside & out, the impressive home retains much of its original character including solid wood doors with period hardware, numerous built-ins, curved walls, & stunning hardwood floors throughout. You'll love the generous proportions of the rooms...in fact, you'll find that just about every room in the house is over-sized, starting with the sprawling Living Room which features windows on 3 sides and its original wood-burning fireplace. Across the wide hall is the formal dining room with corner cabinet & a swinging butler's door that leads to the spacious kitchen with large breakfast nook, and a handy powder room tucked under the attic stairs. The sleeping spaces are just as generous, with a Primary Bedroom measuring an impressive 19' x 15'. There are 2 additional Bedrooms, one currently serving as a Family Room/Den. The sunny full bath with built-in linen closet completes the picture. But, if you're somehow feeling like you need more living space, the huge walk-up attic with skylights & original eyebrow windows offers potential for another 500+ sq ft to call home. Underneath it all is a massive, high and dry basement with built-in double garage. And talk about curb appeal...situated in a quiet neighbourhood the handsome home sits proudly on its large 1/3 acre corner lot with mature trees. At the back of the house is a large sun-soaked back yard with a perimeter of trees providing just enough privacy but not diminishing the lovely sunshine of the southern exposure.
